RICHARD WORLEY,

Bookſeller and Stationer,

Next Door to Mr. Thomas Waites, Grocer and Tallow-Chandler, near the Fiſh-Market in BOSTON.

SELLS as cheap as in London,—All Sorts of Bibles, Common Prayers, School Books, and all other Modern Books, Pamphlets and Plays; Almanacks and other annual Productions; Magazines, News Papers, Weekly Numbers and other periodical Publications ſent to any Part of the Country as ſoon as poſſible after Publication.—All Sorts of Gilt and Plain Writing Papers, Muſic Paper, Marble, Blue, and other Papers; Copy Books and Covers, Maps and Prints with or without Frames, plain or colour'd: Fiddles, Bridges, Bows, and Strings, and Muſical Inſtruments (if ordered.) Great Variety of Paper Hanging for Rooms, Fire Screens, &c. from 2d. to 6d. per Yard and upwards.

Where likewiſe are SOLD by AUTHORITY,

The beſt Daffy's and other Elixirs, and all other public Midicines, Pills, Tinctures, Snuffs, &c. &c.

Books neatly bound in all Kinds of Bindings.—Books bought or exchanged.—New Books, Pamphlets and Plays let out to read by the Year, Quarter, Month, or Book.—Catalogues of which may be had Gratis.—A good Price for white Rags, Raven Quills, &.—Good Allowance to Country Shopkeepers, School Maſters and others who buy to ſell again.